Please vote in favor of this resolution, it contains some painful truths that are long overdue for official recognition by SCUSD's Board. It's sorrowful that all the back and forth of the previous years has brought us to this point, yet here we are. I hope that this is the inflection point from which all stakeholders choose to move forward together.

As a parent and community member, I see the ultimate purpose of the resolution as getting SCUSD onto a stable fiscal path to ultimately better the education of our community's kids--we still have many gaps in equity to address.
