APPLICATION FOR LONG TERM DISABILITY INCOME BENEFITS

H. Signature

With the exception of any source(s) of income reported above in Section F of this form, I certify by my signature that I have not received and am not eligible to receive any source of income, except for my Hartford Disability Income. Further, I understand that should I receive income of any kind or perform work of any kind during any period The Hartford has approved my disability claim, I must report all details to The Hartford, immediately.

If I receive disability benefits greater than those which should have been paid, I understand that I will be required to provide a lump sum repayment to the insurance company. The insurance company has the option to reduce or eliminate future disability payments in order to recover any overpayment balance that is not reimbursed.

For residents of all states EXCEPT California, Florida, New Jersey, Colorado, Pennsylvania, Arkansas, New Mexico, Louisiana, Oregon, and Virginia: A person commits a fraudulent insurance act if that person knowingly, and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person, either: (a) files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or (b) conceals information concerning any material fact in order to obtain an insurance policy or a benefit under an insurance policy. A fraudulent insurance act is a crime. The Hartford shall pursue prosecution of any fraudulent insurance act to the fullest extent of the law.

For residents of Florida: Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim or an application containing any false, incomplete or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

For residents of New Jersey, Arkansas, New Mexico, and Louisiana: Any person who knowingly files a statement of claim containing any false or misleading information is subject to criminal and civil penalties. Any person who includes any false or misleading information on an application for an insurance policy is subject to criminal and civil penalties.

For residents of Colorado: It is unlawful to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, denial of insurance, and civil damages. Any insurance company or its agent who knowingly provides false, incomplete, or misleading information to a policyholder or claimant for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the policyholder or claimant with regard to an insurance settlement or award shall be reported to the Colorado Division of Insurance.

For residents of Pennsylvania: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects a person to criminal and civil penalties.

For residents of California: For your protection, California law requires the following to appear on this form: Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in state prison.

The statements contained in this application for Long Term Disability Income Benefits are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Employer's Statement

1. Date employee became insured under this plan? This is usually the day following completion of the Eligibility Waiting Period for the group policy. If the employee was a late enrollee, however, the effective date is the date the employee's Personal Health Statement was approved by The Hartford.
2. Information needed for withholding and reporting taxes. This information is important because it determines the amount of taxable wages and/or benefits that should be reported for the employee. The portion of the benefit funded by you is taxable.
3. Last day employee actually worked? This is the actual last day the employee worked, not the date through which earnings or sick pay were continued.
4. Complete this section if employee has Hartford Life Insurance.

APPLICATION FOR LONG TERM DISABILITY INCOME BENEFITS

H. Signature

With the exception of any source(s) of income reported above in Section F of this form, I certify by my signature that I have not and am not eligible to receive any source of income, except for my Hartford Disability Income. Further, I understand that should I receive income of any kind or perform work of any kind during any period The Hartford has approved my disability claim, I must report all details to The Hartford, immediately.

If I receive disability benefits greater than those which should have been paid, I understand that I will be required to provide a lump sum repayment to the insurance company. The insurance company has the option to reduce or eliminate future disability payments in order to recover any overpayment balance that is not reimbursed.

For residents of all states EXCEPT California, Florida, New Jersey, Colorado, Pennsylvania, Arkansas, New Mexico, Louisiana, Oregon, and Virginia: A person commits a fraudulent insurance act if that person knowingly, and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person, either: (a) files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or (b) conceals information concerning any material fact in order to obtain an insurance policy or a benefit under an insurance policy. A fraudulent insurance act is a crime. The Hartford shall pursue prosecution of any fraudulent insurance act to the fullest extent of the law.

For residents of Florida: Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim or an application containing any false, incomplete or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

For residents of New Jersey, Arkansas, New Mexico, and Louisiana: Any person who knowingly files a statement of claim containing any false or misleading information is subject to criminal and civil penalties. Any person who includes any false or misleading information on an application for an insurance policy is subject to criminal and civil penalties.

For residents of Colorado: It is unlawful to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, denial of insurance, and civil damages. Any insurance company or its agent who knowingly provides false, incomplete, or misleading information to a policyholder or claimant for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the policyholder or claimant with regard to an insurance settlement or award shall be reported to the Colorado Division of Insurance.

For residents of Pennsylvania: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects a person to criminal and civil penalties.

For residents of California: For your protection, California law requires the following to appear on this form: Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in state prison.

The statements contained in this application for Long Term Disability Income Benefits are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.
